

SOCIAL EVENTS

PLAN FOR CONVENTION.

Forty young people attended the meeting of the Young People's society of the German Evangelical church yesterday evening in the church. At the business session plans were made for holding a basketball tournament at the church Feb. 18, when eight teams will participate. The first team of the Young People's society will play the married men; the second team of the Young People's society will play the first team of the Sunday school; the two girls' teams will play against each other and the two boys' teams of the Sunday school will play each other. Plans were also made for the entertainment next August of the Young People's societies and Sunday schools of the Southeastern district of the German Evangelical church which will meet in this city. The organization is composed of 29 societies and about 70 delegates will be entertained. The local society appointed as the general committee: Miss Agnes Lamp, Mrs. Arthur Burrell, Miss Olga Pomrank, Fred Krueger, Edmund Vogt, Fred Hellenstiel and Rev. F. J. Rolf. Delegates will be entertained in the homes of members of the society. During a social hour a light lunch was served.

LUTHER LEAGUE MEETING.

The Luther League of Grace Lutheran church met last evening in the church parlors and transacted business matters for the month. A short program was given and then followed an hour of sociability and the serving of refreshments.

POST-NUPTIAL PARTY.

Mrs. Delbert Glascock entertained Sunday night at her home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Pearson, the latter a sister of the hostess, who were married last Friday in Rock Island, the bride being Miss Vera Wilcox of Waterloo, Iowa. There were eight guests for the dinner where the decorations were in roses. The later evening hours were spent in a social way. Mr. Pearson is clerk at the John Deere Plow company. He and his bride go to Waterloo, Iowa, to spend their honeymoon with the bride's mother and will be at home after Feb. 10 at 2223 Eleventh avenue A. Moline.

OPTIMUS READING CIRCLE.

Members of the Optimus Reading circle were entertained by Mrs. Margaret Schroeder at the home of her son, Clarence Schroeder, 744 Fifteenth street, last evening. The circle continued the reading of "King Joseph the Second and His Court," the members participating in the reading. During a pleasant social hour a two course lunch was served. Mrs. E. M. Sala will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks.

PROGRAM RECIPROCITY DAY.

Reciprocity program of the music departments of the tri-city Women's clubs will be given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Guthrie 1128 Fifteenth street, Moline. Mrs. Guthrie and Miss Blanche Albrecht entertaining. The program, which follows, will be repeated for the Rock Island department Feb. 19: Vocal, "Die Lorelei." (Liszt)—Miss Selma Mathes, Davenport. Piano, (a) "Oh, Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star." (Liszt); (b) "Cavalina." (Raff)—Miss Naomi Johnson, Rock Island.

Vocal (a) "Aus Meinen Grossen Schmerzen." (Robert Franz); (b) "The Herb Forgetfulness." (Von Flitz)—Miss Virginia Tunnichiff. Piano Etude in D flat, (Liszt)—Miss Violet Nordquist. Piano duet, "Septett." (Beethoven)—Misses Blanche Albrecht and Phyllis Guthrie. Piano, (a) "Meditation." (Raff); (b) "Selection." (Sinding)—Mrs. Rodney Baker.

Song, "Ave Marie." (Schubert)—Miss Virginia Tunnichiff, violin obligato, by Mrs. Helen Forsberg Miller.

HEAR ANTI-SUFFRAGE TALK.

The regular meeting of the study department of the Woman's club was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Masonic temple. The discussion of current events was led by Mrs. M. C. Rice, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Hoge, Mrs. C. L. Thompson and Mrs. C. H. Castetter. Mrs. C. C. Carter then read a paper advocating anti-suffrage. Mrs. Carter has given much thought and study to this subject and presents her arguments in a most convincing manner. The lesson of the afternoon, "Hills of Pinnacles, Their Protection," was conducted by Mrs. W. F. Hansen, assisted by Mesdames Mattie Williams, Clarence Schroeder, Charles Boehme, and Misses Alwilda Young, Blanche Mowbride, Rosabel Stewart, Ellen Montgomery and Anna Ralston.

MONDAY STUDY CLUB.

In spite of the inclement weather a large number of the members of the Monday Study club attended the meeting held yesterday in the home of Mrs. M. M. Sturgeon, 1043 Nineteenth street. Current events were given in the response to roll call and the study hour was devoted to European art. Mrs. F. H. First told of Bonheur, Mrs. Fred Myers of Corot and Mrs. H. W. Ward of Monet, all giving carefully prepared papers. Mrs. R. P. Scott will be the hostess at the next meeting in two weeks.

SOUTH PARK YOUNG PEOPLE MEET.

The Young People's society of South Park Presbyterian church held a well attended meeting last evening in the church parlors, and following the devotional services conducted by Miss Willis, and the business session, a short program was given. Miss Hazel Spaulding played a piano solo, Miss Nellie Bunning gave a reading, and Rev. W. G. Osley gave a piano number. Each of the members of the society gave his favorite scripture quotation. An hour of sociability followed when light refreshments were served.

GUILD PLANS CONTEST.

The Misses Cora and Grace Graves and Mrs. F. L. Patterson entertained the Queen Esther guild of the Memorial Christian church last evening at the home of the Misses Graves, 1600 Eleventh avenue, 40 members attending. The young women decided to hold an experience sociable at the time of next meeting and during the interim will try to raise one dollar to pay off the pledge of $100 to the church, each member then telling her experience in raising the money. Plans were also made for a contest to be held within the class beginning next Sunday and closing Easter. Points will be given for new members, church attendance and visitors, and the losers will banquet the winners after the close of the contest. Mrs. Jessie Busler was chosen captain of the "Blues" and Miss Cecelia Frey of the "Golds." The young women brought their sewing and busied themselves with that. Refreshments were served before the close of a pleasant evening.

WILL READ PRIZE ESSAYS BEFORE W. C. T. U.

Following the custom established several years ago the Woman's Christian Temperance union last fall submitted a topic to the seventh grade pupils of the city schools upon which they were to write in competition for two first and two second prizes of $3 and $2 respectively. The subject submitted was, "Why Business Men Demand Abstinence on the Part of Their Employees," and each essay was to be of 650 or 700 words. The judges, Miss Fannie Cleland, Miss Ella Taylor and Mrs. Phil Wagner, held a meeting Saturday night and selected the prize-winning essays, the following being given first places: Girls—Sylvia Bonnett, Irving school; boys—Calver Masters, Hawthorne school. Second prizes went to: Girls—Margaret Horner, Horace Mann, and boys—Roe Wilson, Hawthorne school. The prize-winners will read their essays at the next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., which will be held Feb. 16 at the Y. M. C. A. at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the prizes will be awarded at that time.

MUSIC STUDENTS MEET.

Old German composers were studied at the meeting of the Music Students' club held yesterday afternoon at the home of the Misses Meta and Elsie Lerch in Camp McClellan, Davenport. The piano numbers were given by Mrs. Adolph Priester, Miss Elsie Lerch, Mrs. Joseph Hecht and Miss Gertrude Brannigan, vocal numbers by Miss Grace Ames and Mrs. William Waterman. During a social time that followed a light lunch was served and the club was invited to meet in two weeks with Miss Elsie Simon in Camp McClellan.

SUBMIT MEMBERSHIP TICKET.

At the next meeting of the civic department of the Woman's club which will be held Feb. 12 officers for the year will be chosen, the nominating committee at the last meeting having submitted their ticket which is as follows:

Chairman—Mrs. C. K. Mixer. Vice chairman—Mrs. F. O. VanGalden. Secretary—Mrs. W. M. Walker. Treasurer—Miss Harriet Johnson. Registrar—Miss Ruth West. Doorkeeper—Mrs. C. E. Adams. Directors—Mesdames G. H. Sherwood, C. E. Sharpe, S. W. Searle, H. H. Cleveland, J. H. Hauberg and Howard Cox.

A membership ticket has been prepared signed by Mesdames C. H. Castetter, G. F. Roth, C. O. Woodruff, Charles Esplin, A. H. McDaniel, S. C. Taylor, C. J. Searle, F. W. Balansen, E. H. Stafford, Willard Schaeffer and is as follows:

Chairman—Mrs. C. K. Mixer. Vice Chairman—Mrs. E. B. Kreis. Secretary—Mrs. N. P. Tucker. Treasurer—Mrs. M. T. Stevens. Registrar—Mrs. F. A. Smith. Doorkeeper—Mrs. J. W. Hoader. Directors—Mesdames G. H. Sherwood, J. B. Bassett, H. S. Bolman, C. A. Curry, F. S. Brough, A. Mosenfelder. Members may vote for any member of either ticket.

COMMITTEE FOR HUMANE AUXILIARY.

At the first meeting following the annual session of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Rock Island County Humane society held yesterday afternoon at the home of the new president, Mrs. Sam Switzer, 1025 Twelfth avenue, committees for the year were named as follows:

Sick, Mrs. Rebecca Taylor, Mrs. Mattison; Reception and to secure places for meeting, Mrs. J. J. Williams; Mrs. William Ulmeyer, Miss Alice Quinlan; Finance, Mrs. J. B. Lid, Mrs. William Quinlan, Mrs. J. A. Reid, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Eugene Ramser; Linen, Mrs. C. T. DuGard, Mrs. Charles Ulmeyer, Mrs. Evers, Miss Carnaghan and Mrs. B. Rachman; Aprons, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Charles Tonn, Mrs. A. J. Riess, Mrs. Fred Rinck and Mrs. L. L. Hance; Rugs, Miss Bliss, Mrs. George Biehl, Mrs. Harry Sage Mrs. Richards; Miscellaneous articles Mrs. Evans, who is to choose helpers; Soliciting, Mrs. Belle Jones, Mrs. J. W. Gulman and Mrs. Switzer; Sewing and making over old clothes, Mrs. Harry Sage and Mrs. DuGard to choose helpers; Work among colored people, Mrs. Belle Jones; Study club, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. N. P. Tucker, Miss Florida Abrahamson; Child welfare, Miss Dina Ramser, Mrs. Carl Rochow and Mrs. W. S. Parks; Bands of Mercy, Mrs. Fred Rinck and Miss Abrahamson; Membership, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Switzer; Dining room, Mrs. J. Williams; dinner and kitchen, Mrs. Mollie Peterson, Mrs. George Biehl, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Evans.

Three new members were received into the society yesterday. Plans were discussed as to means of raising money with which to furnish a room in the new hospital to be erected in Moline and with this purpose in mind coffee and sociables will be held as well as an Easter sale, it being the desire of the president to have the money in hand when the hospital is in course of erection. It was also decided to hold at each meeting a study class when rules and laws governing humane work will be taken up and studied. Mrs. Belle Jones the retiring president, who served for six years, was presented with a cut glass cream and sugar set, and Mrs. Fred Rinck, the retiring secretary, was given a cut glass olive dish, as token of appreciation for their years of service. The society will make a specialty of working over second-hand clothing into garments for poor people and the donation of such articles will be appreciated by the society and may be sent to the president, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sweet of Garden Plaine, Ill., sent three large boxes filled with clothing which they asked to be distributed among the poor children. Refreshments were served at the close of the busy afternoon. Mrs. Fred Rinck will be the next hostess.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dibbern are today celebrating the golden anniversary of their marriage, keeping open house at their home on Twelfth street and Watch Tower road in Sears. Friends of the venerable couple called during the day to extend congratulations and best wishes for many more years of health and happiness.

ZION MEN'S SOCIETY.

The monthly meeting of the Men's society of Zion Lutheran church was held yesterday evening at the home of Andrew Olson, 1125 Seventh avenue. After a short business meeting remarks were made by A. G. Anderson, an informal program following in which Sigfrid Blomgren and C. E. Anderson sang a Swedish student song and Daniel Fredren gave a most interesting talk on student life at Upsala college. Messrs Blomgren and Anderson closed the program with another duet. During a pleasant social time Mrs. Olson served a nice lunch.

SOCIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Ladies' guild of Sacred Heart parish will conduct a coffee and apron sale at the residence of Rev. C. P. O'Neill March 17. There will be a program of musical numbers during the afternoon and friends of the parish are invited to attend.

Sylvan Court of Honor No. 391 will entertain at a dancing party at Odd Fellows' hall this evening for members and friends.

The Daughters of Isabella will conduct a card party Wednesday, Feb. 10, at K. C. hall, Mrs. J. T. Marston and Mrs. F. M. Burt acting as hostesses. The proceeds will be used for charitable purposes.

The Endowment Fund society will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Andrew Kempe, 3933 Eighth avenue, with Mrs. Grant Halberg as the assisting hostess.

The Busy Bee Sewing circle of the Redeemers will meet with Mrs. George Barker, 1614 Twenty-fourth-and-a-half street, Thursday afternoon. Friends are welcome to the meeting.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

WORTH KNOWING.
Try a currycomb (like they use on horses) for cleaning brushes in carpet sweepers.

New Way to Remove Stained Places from Wash Goods.—Take galvanized tub, put in layer of clean snow, spread over this the garment to be bleached, smooth out, put on more snow till spot is entirely covered two or three inches deep. Let stand in sunshine in daytime, but where it will freeze at night. In a week place tub on stove. When snow is melted spot will be gone and there will be no danger tearing the garment thawing it out. A large article can be spread on the snow out of doors if care is taken in removing it.

Gas-Saving Hint.—Place dishpan filled one-third full of water over one burner of gas stove. Then place the vegetables, stew or whatever you wish to cook in straight crocks or sauce pans and place in pan of hot water. In this way several things may be cooked over one burner with no fear of their burning, and your dishwasher is also ready.

UP-TO-DATE RECIPES.

Clam Chowder.—Small can little neck clams, six cups water, one-half teaspoon salt, one-third teaspoon pepper, two slices lean bacon, four onions, six potatoes, three carrots, tops of bunch celery, one bunch parsley, one pint canned tomatoes. Cut everything in small cubes and cook two hours.

Vegetable Hash.—Chop coarsely any cold vegetables left from boiled dinner and season with salt and pepper. Melt small lump of butter in frying pan, add chopped vegetables, pour in two tablespoons boiling water, cover closely and heat through.

Sweet-Sour Meat.—Take from four to five pounds rump pot roast and put it in kettle you are going to cook it in. After you salt, pepper and flour it on both sides, fry a nice brown. Then take two cups hot water, one cup vinegar, half cup sugar, one teaspoon whole cloves; cook three hours. Half hour before serving add half box raisins, one whole onion and one tablespoon flour, mixed in a little cold water to thicken. When this is all done it will be a golden brown and a most delicious dish to be served with mashed potatoes.

Breakfast Dish.—Soak one pound codfish over night in cold water, then break in six or eight pieces. Take one onion, mince, then put in skillet with spoonful lard; brown, add codfish and one cup cold boiled rice and put over top one cup tomatoes; cover tight for 20 minutes.

Cranberry-Apple Sauce.—One pound cranberries, four tart apples; cook together until soft; put through wire sieve, return to stove, cook again, adding three cups sugar. Put in sherbet glasses and let set.

Young's

LADIES READY TO WEAR STORE

1704 Second Avenue, Rock Island

50 CENTS A DAY REDUCTION ON ALL

Winter Coats and Suits

UNTIL ALL ARE SOLD

WEDNESDAY PRICE $7.48

Faster, faster are the coats going—Winter Coats moving off the racks like wildfire at these low prices, positively not a coat will be carried over. Values to $25.00.

Suits values that will surprise you all, wide skirts, silk and wool poplin braid trimmed. Values to $30.00.

Dresses $6.75

A large and varied assortment of dresses at a price that should make the early dress season brisk. Choose from these tomorrow,

$6.75

Waists 98c

Another shipment of waists is here. Could you see these values you would no longer wonder why we are doing such a great waist business. Values that sell elsewhere at $1.50, our price,

98 Cents

Theater

ILLINOIS.

Feb. 10—"The Misleading Lady."

Feb. 11—"The Review of 1915," burlesque with Packey McFarland.

Feb. 12—"Famous Magician."

Feb. 14—"Arthur Hammerstein presents his great musical comedy success, 'High Jinks.'"

Feb. 16—"Auto Girls," Columbian burlesque.

Feb. 18-19-20-21—"The Spoilers" with Kathryn Williams, William Farnam, all star cast.

Feb. 28—"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," (the show itself).

Jan. 31, Feb. 1, 2 and 3—Drama Players in "The House of Bondage."

Feb. 4, 5 and 6—Drama Players in "The Tenderfoot."

MAJESTIC.

Tuesday—"The Tip Off," modern police drama by Pathe players.

Wednesday—Charles Richman, Theocore Roberts, Frederick Montague, Dorothy Quincey and Anita King in "The Man from Home." Paramount-Liebert production.

Friday—Beatriz Michelena in "Mission," a dramatization of the famous opera. Five part World production.

Saturday—Double feature bill including "Fatty and Minnehaha," a two-reel Keystone comedy.

COLONIAL.

Tuesday—Special in five parts, "The Mystery of the Poisoned Pool."

Wednesday—"The Love of the Yerkon."

Thursday, Feb. 4—"The Film Detective," comedy, one reel.

Friday—Fourth episode of "Runaway June."

Saturday—Special feature, "The King and Country."

Sunday—Extra special, "A Fool There Was," six reels.

FAMILY.

Tuesday—"The Speed King," Thandous, two parts, "Mutual Monographs," Reliance, "His Lesson," Majestic, "In the Vale of Sorrows," comedy drama.

Wednesday—"The Legend Beautiful," two part Mutual Weekly, "Unseen Vengeance," American drama, "The Darky Lovers' Play," Keystone comedy.

Thursday—"The Three Brothers," two part Majestic drama, "After 29 Years," Reliance drama, "The Bottomless Pit," K. B. drama, "Fatty's Role," Keystone comedy.

Friday—"In the Land of the Otter," two reel Domino drama, "A Yellowstone Honeycomb," Thandous comedy drama, Bill Trice's "Valet," comedy drama.

Saturday—Third episode of "Exploits of Elaine," entitled "The Vanishing Jewels," two parts, "The Cross of Fire," K. B. drama, two parts, "Hogan's Mussy Job," Keystone comedy.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a step-mother 21 years old and am considered pretty. I am working for a man who is married, but I am deeply in love with him, and I think he loves me. He has not come right out and said so, but I can tell from his actions that he thinks a lot of me. How shall I tell him that I love him, and do you think it is right for me to do so? I don't care a particle for any other man, and I don't see how it can be wrong when God gave me this feeling for him. I simply can't exist without his love.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl a little past 18 years old. Have always been obedient to my parents, but there is a question that seems to puzzle me and I write you to solve it for us. About a year ago I met a young fellow a trifle older than myself, but we failed to agree for any length of time and have made three attempts at making up. In the first place I am the only girl and daddy has spoiled me, and mother, too, to some extent, but when she sets her head she is firm. A lady friend caused our first difference, and then he went with her awhile. Then we made up, but could not agree when her name was mentioned, so we quit again. A short time before the holidays he called up over the phone and was talking to mother and wanted to be friends again and said that we would never mention the other girl's name, which we did. But as mother was going away for a visit I did not ask him to the house, although there was an older person at home. I think he got peeved again. He came after me where I worked several times and we always parted the best of friends. Now I hear he is going with the other girl again. Mother says although he is a nice fellow, she thinks I had better quit to bed.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help showing that we love a married man.

My dear girl, I tremble when I think of your dangerous position. I hope you will be given strength to leave the position and the man whom you have no right to love. Hide this passion from him, of all people. No love can give any permanent happiness that is not based on respect and a love of honor, dearer than love itself. You would not like to have any woman do anything to take his love from you if you were married to him. Do therefore the honorable thing, and I admit the hard thing. Leave him and try to live this passion down before it draws all that is noblest in you. We may not be able to help loving, but we can help